Manage your company's expenses in seconds with Artificial Intelligence.

Company

Boolfy is an AI-powered SaaS platform that digitizes, validates, and posts documents in real time. Units: Expense Management and Intelligent Document Processing (IDP) for invoices, contracts, and receipts.

We operate in Argentina, Mexico, Uruguay, and Brazil, with ongoing expansion into Spain.

Problem & Solution

Finance departments lose up to 80 hours/month manually entering invoices and expenses. Boolfy extracts, validates, and posts data in seconds, reducing costs by up to 90% and eliminating human errors.

Products & Services

- Boolfy Invoice Agent – posts invoices in under 5 seconds
- Boolfy Expense Management – captures expenses, approves them, and exports to the ERP
- API & White-Label – REST integration in 1 week with SAP B1, Netsuite, Oracle Cloud Fusion
- Custom IDP – new agent for any document in under 10 days

Differentiator

- 48h Go-Live • Pay-Per-Use from USD 0.15/doc
- Accuracy > 98%
- Multi-language & multi-country
